WRIT PETITION NO.11695 OF 2005

O R D E R (Per the Hon'ble Sri Bilal Nazki, ACJ):

We are told at the Bar that the detenus were released on bail. It was stated by learned counsel for the petitioner that the detenus were kept in illegal custody, therefore, we ordered appointment of a Commissioner and the Sessions Judge, Anantapur was asked to make a detailed enquiry and give a report. He has reported that except the sole and interested testimony of the detenus, there was no other evidence to support their statements that they were kept in illegal detention by the CCS police, Kadapa or kept in illegal detention by the police of Proddatur as stated by them.

Learned counsel for the petitioner wants to contest this report, but it would be difficult for this Court in these proceedings to come to a conclusion different than the conclusions arrived at by the Sessions Judge, therefore, we dismiss this writ petition accepting the report. The report is accepted for the purpose of this writ petition and give liberty to the petitioner to seek any other remedy available to him in law. No order as to costs.
